SHORT COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT
ON
LEADERSHIP, TEAM BUILDING AND COACHING SKILLS FOR DIRECTORS, HR
MANAGERS AND SUPERVISORS FOR EFFECTIVE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

(05th – 09th NOVEMBER, 2018 - IAA ARUSHA CAMPUS, ARUSHA)

1.0 Background

Today's organization's operate in environments of continuous change. Changes in company strategy, the introduction of new products and increasing demands from customers all serve to challenge the knowledge and skills of managers. Effective communications and training are a prerequisite for any company who wishes their teams to adapt & deliver excellent results, but this is not enough.

Today's Manager must consider how they will assist their people to apply newly acquired knowledge and skills to be successful. By applying structured consultative coaching skills, it leads to self-motivation and an attitude that is oriented towards solutions and continual improvement rather than problems and avoidance. This constructive and progressive approach, if embedded into the culture of the company departments, will improve results, increase customer satisfaction levels and enhance staff motivation. This interactive and action packed coaching skills program helps turn managers or supervisors into effective coaches. Therefore, this course is designed to provide an overview to the use of leadership, Team building and Coaching skills in dealing with employees in order to contribute significantly to the organization, directorates and our Nation at large.
